

Christian Values

We blend Christian teaching and our Christian Values in order to create opportunities for children to develop physically, emotionally, socially, mentally and intellectually so that their self-esteem and well-being are well developed and supported by an ever growing emotional intelligence, thus leading to an awareness of their rights and responsibilities as young citizens of the world and an understanding of what it is to be human.

