News: In Worship Assembly this week, we discussed the US Presidential Election in the context of “What makes a good leader?” and spoke about what the Bible says about Jesus as a great leader. The children made careful reflections and were keen to share their opinions. On Tuesday, we welcomed Mr Paul Jervis from the Royal British Legion, who brought his puppet dog, Poppy to meet the children. Mr Jervis was very impressed with the children’s understanding of why the poppy is a symbol of Remembrance and he enjoyed sharing all our books relating to this event. Gold Awards were received by pupils for excellent progress with their schoolwork. The House Cup was won by Isham with 380 House Points (Coles 354, Halestrap 259, Buswell 203). Well done, everyone! Please see attached flyers about Children In Need and the Diocesan Christmas Card Competition, and look out for Owl Class featuring in the Harborough Mail this week! Governors would be very grateful if you could spend a few minutes completing the Ofsted Parent View Questionnaire, available at this link: <https://parentview.ofsted.gov.uk/> Thank you.
