News: It’s beginning to look a lot like Christmas! The decorations have gone up and the school is looking very sparkly and festive. In Worship Assembly this week, Reverend Tom spoke to the children about Advent – a period of time when Christians get ready for Christmas. Owl and Robin Class visited the church for a special Christingle Worship Assembly and learnt all about the symbolism represented by the Christingle’s orange, red ribbon, candle and fruits. Everyone is invited to attend the All Saints’ Christingle Service at 4pm on Christmas Eve – see attached flyer. Owl Class thoroughly enjoyed a visit from a local Optometrist. As well as learning about how the Optometrist helps to look after their eyes, they heard lots of fun facts about the eyes of other animals. In other news, Mr Harris will be leaving Rhino Sports at the end of term. Mr Woodward has joined us and will complete his induction over the next few weeks, and I know you will join the staff team in welcoming him to Clipston. We look forward to seeing many of you at our Nativity Performances on Thursday and at the School Association Bazaar on Friday!
