News: In Worship Assembly this week, we discussed the significance of the candles on our Advent Wreath - the Hope of the Prophet’s Candle; Faith of the Bethlehem Candle; Joy of the pink Shepherd’s Candle; Peace of the Angel’s Candle and of course Jesus, The light of the World as the central, white candle. Next week we will have an Awards Assembly, so please do send your nominations to the office. Miss Winterburn will be joining us in January to support Special Educational Needs pupils and I know you will all join staff and governors in welcoming her. It will be another exciting festive extravaganza in school next week. Everyone is looking forward to the Junior Carol Service, Christmas Jumper Day, the Panto and School Discos – and there will be an update on today’s Bazaar too! The highlight this week was the Infant Nativity, a spectacular production of “Jesus’ Christmas Party”, performed utterly brilliantly by Owl and Robin Classes who sang their hearts out – an absolute joy to watch – Well Done Team Clipston!
