News: In Worship Assembly this week, we considered our Hopes and Dreams for 2025 in the context of our Christian Values of Love and Courage. To illustrate this, we listened to music played by Felix Klieser, who had a dream from a young age to learn the French horn, despite being born without arms. With the love of his family, grit, courage and determination, Felix now plays the French horn professionally with orchestras around the world. Children in every class have thoroughly enjoyed their PE Lessons this week, encouraged by Mr Woodward to learn new skills in Orienteering (Woodpecker Class) and Dance (in Owl, Robin and Kingfisher Classes). Year 1&2 pupils gave brilliant demonstrations of their body shapes inspired by music from The Jungle Book and similarly, Y3&4 pupils enjoyed freeze-framing images inspired by the James Bond Theme tune. It was lovely to see the children enthusiastically creating and performing their dance routines! Mrs Glover will be absent for most of this term as she recovers from a knee operation. Her roles and responsibilities will be absorbed as far as possible by The Staff Team. NADS is performing Snow White next weekend and the cast includes one of our own pupils starring as Dopey! Flyer attached.
