Apostrophe Answers

We use apostrophes to show ownership or possession. Below, you will find a list of questions. Write an answer to each question using a singular noun with an apostrophe. Remember that to show possession you normally add an apostrophe and the letter s ('s) to the end of the noun. However, be careful with nouns ending in an s as we only need to add an apostrophe after the final s. For example:

Whose cake had the best flavour?

Mary's cake had the best flavour.

1. Whose fur is very silky?

2. Whose neck is very long?

3. Whose spaceship is faster than lightspeed?

4. Whose car has flashing blue lights?

5. Whose coat was lost?

6. Whose favourite stories are all about dragons?
