Christmas is now coming

Christmas is now coming
Santa will get fat
With all the treats he has to eat
As we leave them on the mat

Rudolf and his friends
Carry all the gifts we get
Let's hope it doesn't rain tonight
Or else they will get wet

The children all are sleeping
At least they're trying to
So Santa will deliver them
Gifts so shiny and new

The clock strikes 5, the noise begins
'Go back to bed' they hear
'How can we sleep' the children cry
We're full of Christmas cheer

The turkey goes in the oven
We cook it nice and slow
The carrots boil, the cabbage bubbles
The brussels make us blow

The food's all gone, we're nice and full
Uncle David's gone to sleep
"It's my turn!" "It's not fair"
The peace we never keep

It's getting late, we're really tired
It all will end we fear
Only 365 days to go
'Till we do it again next year.
