Answers

1. What does the word respect mean?

Treating others how you would like to be treated and caring about others feelings, thoughts, rights and beliefs.

2. What should you do if you see something that upsets you online?

Tell a trusted adult straight away.

3. Why do people post nasty words online?

They feel braver because they are not doing it face to face. They may be jealous of the person. They may think that it makes them cool.

4. What does the word 'sharing' mean in terms of the online world?

Sharing online is when you post messages, photos or videos for others to see.

5. What was wrong about the children sharing the photo of Megan and who could see that photo?

It wasn't their photo to share and they didn't get permission. They also made it public.

6. Why do people pretend to be someone else online?

To trick people out of money, to be mean to get others into trouble.

7. Who should you talk to online?

Your friends only.

8. Should we always trust what we read online?

No not everything is true so you should check with more than 1 source to see if it is true.
