Recognising Direct Speech

4. Circle the parts of the sentences below which are spoken.

“Hi there!” Annabelle shouted as she ran across the playground towards her best friend, Zoe. “Would you like one of my chewy sweets?” she asked.

VF

5. Hamish has written the sentences below using direct speech.

Billy asked, Chris, can we go to the park after school today? I really want to show you the new football skills that I learnt at the weekend”! shouted Billy excitedly.

Find the two mistakes that Hamish has made and correct them.

6. Savannah and Steve are discussing the use of direct speech in the sentence below.

“Have you got any wrapping paper at home? Brenda asked, “That I could use?”

Savannah

The sentence is missing a pair of inverted commas after the question mark.

The sentence doesn't need any inverted commas because it's a question.

Steve

Who do you agree with? Explain how you know.

Answers

Expected

4. "Hi there!"; "Would you like one of my chewy sweets?"
5. Hamish has not included the first inverted commas and he has incorrectly placed the final pair of inverted commas before the exclamation mark. The sentence should read: "Chris, can we go to the park after school today?" asked Billy. "I really want to show you my new football skills that I learnt at the weekend!" shouted Billy excitedly.
6. Savannah is correct because the sentence needs another pair of inverted commas to show where the first part of the speech stops. The sentence should read: "Have you got any wrapping paper at home?" Brenda asked, "That I could use?"
