Different Types of Sentences

Statements - Statements are sentences which tell you something. They end with a full stop.

Questions - Questions are sentences that ask you something. They usually end with a question mark.

Commands - Commands are sentences that tell you to do something. They are often urgent or angry and can be very short.

Exclamations - Exclamations are sentences that state something with strong feeling or emotion. They begin with 'what' or 'how', are full sentences, include a verb or a noun and end with an exclamation mark.'

7. True or false? There are 5 statements and 2 exclamations in the paragraph below.

As Emma reached the head's office, she heard muffled voices coming from within. Mr Crabtree sounded more excited than she'd ever heard in her four years at the school. She pressed her ear to the cold oak of the door and listened intently.

"What a talented girl you have there, Lillian."

"She is... even for a witch of her age, she shows great potential."

A witch? She couldn't be a witch. Witches don't exist!
