Fete Queen 2024

News: A fantastic crowd came to support the Summer Fete on Saturday and, despite a terrific thunderstorm and downpour just before festivities began, the sun shone for the rest of the afternoon and much fun was had by all. It was lovely to see so many ex-pupils come to say hello! Huge thanks to everyone who gave so generously of their time to support the School Association volunteers. The traditional crowning of the Fete Monarch took place and the children especially had a fun-filled afternoon. In Worship Assembly this week, we have been talking about Pride Month and the significance of the Pride Flag. Children have seen a lovely collection of books in our Reflection Area, exploring linked themes with the message "It's ok to be different". The children thoroughly enjoyed a performance by the Northamptonshire Music And Performing Arts Trust Wind Recital Ensemble today – they learnt about the different instruments, heard them play individually and then listened to the beautiful sound they made together. Our New Reception cohort visited this week and they are all really looking forward to starting "Big School" in September!
