News: The highlight of the week was welcoming Year 2 from Sparkenhoe School in Leicester for the day. Everyone thoroughly enjoyed the village "Treasure Hunt" walk from school to the Rec. and back up to the War Memorial, stopping off to explore inside the church. Many thanks to the Governors who supported the trip and also to Mr and Mrs Carpenter for leading the session in church and allowing the children to explore freely. This reciprocal relationship with Sparkenhoe School has existed for over 30 years and Robin Class are looking forward to visiting Sparkenhoe after half-term. Supported by Year 5, Owl Class really enjoyed preparations for Pentecost, making kites and having a picnic at the end of last week. Well done to everyone who supported DressUp Day – you raised over £60 for the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation – photos will be in the next Newsletter. We wish all our families a lovely (hopefully dry!) half-term break.
