News: We have a very exciting, busy week coming up with the Rock Kidz Workshops, the London Lion King Trip, Sports Day (fingers crossed the weather will be more reliable next week) and the Kingfisher Sleepover. Please read the additional information so that you are fully aware of all the arrangements. We look forward to seeing the staff and children dressed as Rock Stars for the day. Mr Rosevear is hoping to spend the day with us in London on Wednesday. This week in Worship Assembly, we have been discussing the significance in the Pride Flag in the context of British Values and the Protected Characteristics. On Monday, Woodpecker Class were fascinated by a talk from Julie Ball who is preparing for the 380th Anniversary of the Battle of Naseby as part of the Re-enactment Events on 14th June. Clipston Village Festival is on 21st June. School pupils are invited to perform between 3pm and 3.30pm either singing or playing an instrument. Please contact Adam Bugla at adam2733@gmail.com to reserve your slot on the stage! Pupils are invited to enter the Design a Christmas Sock Competition by a parent who works for Bauer Media, a company which runs Cash for Kids, supporting underprivileged children. You can enter the competition here: <https://live.cashforkids.org.uk/stand-out-socks/> and the winner will be gifted a £500 Amazon Voucher. It's always a delight to hear about the children's accomplishments out of school whether it's music and singing exams, sports, Rainbows, Beavers, Brownies, Scouts or Cadets, or in this case a swimming award for one of our youngest pupils – Well Done!
