News: In Awards Assembly, the House Cup joint winners were Coles & Buswell Houses, both with 198 House Points (Halestrap 175, Isham 172). Gold Awards were presented to children for achievements including classwork, sports and dance - and this Year 2 pupil organized a cake bake, raising £139 for charity - well done! The Bishop’s Award for RE was presented to Elliot in Year 4, and Arlo was awarded the Year 2 Friendship Cup. In spite of the heat, the children in Owl & Robin Classes thoroughly enjoyed representing Hungary and Great Britain, competing against other schools at the Rhino Mini Olympics in Towcester. Team Hungary came 3rd out of ten teams and Team GB came 7th – well done! We have welcomed Mrs Ward-Langman for her induction as the new morning Teaching Assistant in Robin Class, plus lunchtimes from September. As a qualified teacher and a very experienced TA, Mrs Ward-Langman will be a super addition to the Staff Team. Miss Holton will be leaving Rhino in August – she has been appointed to the School Staff Team as the TA in Kingfisher Class, plus lunchtimes. It goes without saying that the Year 5 & 6 performances of Frozen have been the highlight of the week. The children’s excitement, exuberance and camaraderie shone through every performance. Such a fabulous production – Clipston School at its very best. Many congratulations to everyone involved and massive thanks to Mrs Glover, Miss Winterburn and Mrs Smith for making it all happen.
