News: In Worship Assembly this week, to celebrate International Literacy Day, we have been reflecting on the power of reading. We discussed what literacy is, and how we are very lucky to have the opportunity to become literate, alongside how this can positively impact our lives. We shared the book 'I Hate Love Books' by Mariajo Illustrajo and discovered being literate is not just a human right but also the key to our imagination. Owl Class have enjoyed their first full week in school and have started their phonic lessons. They have been practising how to write their letter sounds as well as learning to retell the story of Mr Wiggle and Mr Waggle. Everyone in Key Stage 1 and 2 took part this week in the elections for the four new House Captains. Congratulations to those that were voted in, we are sure you will represent your houses proudly!
