In the News: In Worship Assembly this week we were celebrating the importance of being creative following the change to the McDonald’s happy meal boxes. We shared how God created our World and discussed the many ways we can express ourselves creatively. We shared the story ‘It’s your world now – by Barry Falls’ focussing on how we see our world creatively and how this can give us inspiration to be creative.

We welcomed a visit from Mrs Heavens from the Engima Maths Hub this week, who enjoyed her morning with Mrs Weston visiting classes, exploring how we become good mathematicians and she was thrilled with how engaged and enthusiastic we are about maths.

The whole school has been busy preparing for next weeks Christmas Bazaar, with lots of creative crafts taking place. We look forward to seeing many of you for this next Friday afternoon.

This week we said our goodbyes to Mrs Ward Langman- we wish her the very best in her new ventures.

Pantomime Trip ~ We will be leaving promptly at 9.00am. Coaches are unable to wait for latecomers – please arrive at school on time. Thank you! 😊
